Taxi drivers plea for help over attacks

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

ANGRY taxi drivers have called for a swifter response by the police following an attack on a driver last week.

It is the latest in a series of incidents and furious drivers are now considering setting up their own 'fast response' unit to help colleagues in trouble.

Cabbies staged a protest at Luton Police station in Buxton Road after a driver was beaten up and his vehicle damaged near McDonalds in Leagrave on Friday, September 27.

He was taken to Luton and Dunstable Hospital and kept overnight for treatment.

After the attack, the Luton Borough Drivers Union (LBDU) issued a statement criticising Bedfordshire Police for having a 'really slow' response to the incident. It said drivers were 'angry and confused as to why the company operators and the local police are not helping them in their time of need.

'Drivers are worried whilst at work because they think they can get attacked anytime.'

In the past week Bedfordshire Police have charged four individuals in connection with robberies against taxi drivers.

They included a 16-year-old charged with five robberies and a theft from a motor vehicle.

The LBDU's comments follow a campaign by our sister title Bedfordshire on Sunday after a private hire driver died following an attack in January 2012.

A union spokesman said: "Recently we have had a lot of attacks and our drivers are injured and they have their vehicles damaged. The police reaction is very slow towards taxi drivers and we want to know what the problem is."

"We want the people of Luton to know what's happening to us."

"We provide the service to the public of Luton and if we are victimised how can we provide the service?"

The LBDU said it was considering forming a 'quick response unit' consisting of other drivers who would rush to provide 'moral support' to colleagues.

The spokesman also added that drivers were calling the owners of the taxi companies to take stronger action.

He said: "The operators are also not doing much for the drivers. Because if the police are not taking action we are expecting more from the operators."

A Bedfordshire Police spokesman said: "We are proactively policing and looking into incidents of this nature and we have arrested a number of suspects."

"We have already charged four individuals and we would encourage victims of these crimes to get in touch with us and come forward to assist us with our enquiries."

"Any witnesses to any of these incidents can contact us by calling 101 or calling Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111."

Police find drugs, gun and cash at property

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

DETECTIVES have recovered a gun, a significant amount of cash, and a small amount of cannabis following the execution of two warrants this week.

Two women were also apprehended during the searches at the addresses in Regis Road and Wedgewood Road, which are in the Lewsey Farm area of the town.

Officers arrested a 47-year-old woman on suspicion of money laundering, possession of a firearm and possession of a Class B drug after finding the items at the Regis Road property.

Searches at the second address resulted in a 33-year-old woman being cautioned for possession of a Class B drug.

Officers said the weapon recovered was the 14th illegally held firearm to be removed from the streets in six months, and brings the total number of people arrested to 72.

Bedfordshire Police also said it was working closely with Luton council, including the Youth Offending Service, to tackle serious violent crime throughout the town.

A statement released by the force said it had referred 70 young people for safeguarding measures after they were identified as being at risk from the ongoing situation. Officers said crimes involved a small number of hardened criminals who are using firearms to support their wider offending.

So far four people have been charged in connection with firearms offences and they are currently all remanded in custody awaiting trial.

The force said it was still offering a £1,000 reward to anyone who gave information that lead to the arrest and conviction of those involved in gun crime in the town.

Chief Superintendent Jim Saunders said: "We cannot progress our investigations unless people are brave and come forward with information."

"We need people to put pen to paper and make statements. Bedfordshire Police has received lots of information about gun crime but needs people to make statements in order that further charges can be brought."

"Measures are available to anyone who has information but is afraid to come forward including confidential reporting and where necessary witness protection."

TV crew follows university 'freshers' students

STUDENTS from The University of Bedfordshire are set to take part in a new series following their first tentative steps away from home.

Freshers, airing on Tuesday on ITV2, will lift the lid on what university life is really like and what 'first years' get up to. Expect plenty of partying and a few tears along the way.

A spokeswoman for ITV2 said: "From the unparalleled highs to the unexpected lows, Freshers will explore the daunting reality of university and just how hard it can be out there in the big wide world."

"We follow ladies man Max, 18 from Nottingham, loveable Forrest, 18 from Luton, glamorous Anita, 20 from London, horse loving Abbie, 19 from Essex, hip hop performer Jay C, 18 from London and daddy's girl Bayleigh, 18 from Colchester as they embark on the most exciting and significant three years of their lives."

In the first show we see the students leaving what they know behind as they travel to their new home.

See our website luton-dunstable.co.uk for profiles of all the freshers taking part.

The new show will show what university life is really like for freshers

GYPSY SITE DEADLINE POSTPONED

THE deadline to put plans for seven gypsy and traveller sites in Central Bedfordshire to the secretary of state has been postponed with no new date set.

Central Bedfordshire Council was due to submit its gypsy and traveller plan to the secretary of state this month.

However, after temporary permission was given for six pitches at the Mile Tree Road site in Leighton Buzzard, the draft plan has been held back until sometime in the New Year.

The 'short-list' of seven proposed sites in areas such as Barton Le Clay, Potton, Biggleswade and Stotfold, can take 66 possible pitches.

THIEVES STEAL COIN COLLECTION

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a collection of commemorative coins was stolen during a burglary.

The theft took place in Sycamore Close on Wednesday, September 25 sometime between 1.30 and 3.50pm.

Thieves jumped over a garden fence, forced open a window and gained access to the property before taking the items.

Anyone with information can call the police on 101.

Gun hero jeweller gets ticking off from wife!

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE jeweller who dared an armed man to shoot him during a botched robbery attempt has revealed how he was given a ticking off by his wife for his heroics.

Derek Tatham, 67, said his wife thought what he had done was 'a bit silly' but said he had only acted 'out of instinct'.

The shop owner, who runs Tatham Jewellers in High Town, had been working alone in his store when drug addict Clayton Patterson entered the premises posing as a customer.

He then produced a gun and said 'this is a hold up, I need everything'. But Mr Tatham replied 'You are not supposed to point guns at people', before telling Patterson 'Go on then' when he threatened to shoot him.

The jeweller, who was commended and rewarded with £250 by a judge for his actions, said he was 'normally a calm person' and had only stood up for himself because he didn't want his shop to be robbed.

He said: "I didn't think about my safety because I was more angry than anything, I just didn't think about it."

Brave Mr Tatham said he 'wasn't going to give in'

"I was not going to give in because you just can't. I had started in the shop at seven in the morning and I finish late in the evening so why should I just give in?"

"People shouldn't be carrying guns in the first place and once you give in you're going down a slippery slope."

During the incident Mr Tatham hit Patterson, who has been jailed for nine years, with an old machete in a bid to delay him.

Patterson eventually escaped but was traced after being linked to the incident in 2011 through his DNA.

Mr Tatham said: "We were in the shop and there was no way that he was going to get out of the shop because it was locked."

"The whole idea was to stall him until the police got there, I am not a violent person."

"Afterwards my wife said what I had done was a bit silly but at the time I didn't think about it and it was out of instinct."

Anger over theft of children's goats

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carlmungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN has had four goats stolen a month after he first got them as pets for his children.

Naz Hussain, 39, from Beechwood Road, said he 'didn't think' anyone would take the animals when he left them on a piece of land near Stopsley Common.

The goats went missing on Tuesday after Mr Hussain and his wife had left to go home.

They had spent all day with the animals and had departed at 3pm. However, when they returned later on in the evening at around 7pm they were gone.

Mr Hussain said they searched for the animals, thinking they had got lost, but were later told by residents the goats had been taken away by a group of men.

He said: "I rented land from the council in Stopsley and I put four goats there to graze."

"I thought they had been lost but when I began talking to people about it I was told that they had been taken by some people."

"I told the police about it and they went there but they couldn't find anything."

Four goats that have gone missing from land in Stopsley

"I've spoken to some dog walkers and they all told me the same thing that they had seen the people taking them away."

Prior to leaving his goats in Stopsley Mr Hussain said he had been warned they could be taken. But he said he didn't believe anyone would take them.

He said: "I am trying to report it to the police that they had been stolen and not lost but I am being passed from pillar to post."

"I just want my goats back."

People told me not to put the goats there but I didn't think they would be taken."

"What would you do with four goats?"

"I have been keeping goats for three years and I keep them as pets for my three kids."

"I got these ones about a month ago because I knew I would be getting this land."

A police spokeswoman said the force was looking into incident and has made an appeal for any witnesses to the theft.

Council prosecutes driver

AN uninsured private hire driver has been prosecuted for collecting non-booked fares and transporting passengers without insurance.

Tasir Hussain Shah, 62 of Lincoln Road, Luton, was found guilty of 'plying for hire' and driving with no insurance at Luton Magistrates' Court last week.

He was ordered to pay £450 costs by the court after the case was brought forward by Central Bedfordshire Council.

Private hire drivers are only licensed and insured to pick-up and transport passengers who pre-book them.

Only licensed taxi drivers, also known as hackney carriage drivers, are able to pick up unbooked fares from taxi ranks or from people hailing a taxi from the street or roadside.

The council said that the prosecution was part of a crackdown.

Officials are launching undercover operations to find out where private hire drivers pick up non-booked passengers.

ANOTHER arrest has been made as part of the investigation into the murder of teenager Micah Urquhart.

Micah, 19, from Hastings Street, died after being found injured near his home at 12.40am on September 13 by a member of the public.

A man, aged 22, was arrested on suspicion of murder on Wednesday and was taken in by officers after they executed three warrants.

Two men have already been charged with Micah's murder and are currently on remand in custody.

Detective Chief Inspector Sharn Basra, from the Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire and Hertfordshire Major Crime Unit, said the force was still appealing for witnesses to come forward.

She said: "Although we have made significant progress with this inquiry and have charged two individuals, we continue to investigate Micah's death and will pursue every lead possible.

"Detectives are continuing to piece together Micah's last movements – we know he was last seen leaving his home address in Hastings Street at 3.30pm on Thursday afternoon (Sept 12) as he was heading on foot towards the town centre.

"It is important that anyone who saw or heard from him from 3.30pm on Thursday until 12.40am on Friday should contact the inquiry team as soon as possible."

MISSING: The whereabouts of the sign is a mystery

Missing sign will not be replaced

THE council has said it will not be replacing a 'Welcome to Luton' sign which has gone missing. Luton council said it would not be a 'good use of council funds' to replace the sign which mysteriously vanished in Luton Road.

Its disappearance was first spotted by an eagle-eyed resident last week. The spokesman added that the authority 'would like the person who stole the sign to return it'.

Ban on cameras to catch illegal parkers?

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

COUNCILS could be banned from using fixed cameras and CCTV to catch illegally parked drivers.

Communities Secretary Eric Pickles said the law could be changed to 'rein in these over-zealous and unfair' parking rules.

Some local authorities, such as Luton council, use the technology to enforce parking restrictions.

But critics have claimed councils are harming the high street trade as shoppers are afraid of receiving heavy penalties.

Conservative Party data estimated that fixed cameras and 'camera cars' were responsible for the issuing of £301million worth of fines in the last five years.

A spokeswoman for Luton council said it already restricted the 'use of CCTV enforcement to areas that are difficult to enforce by foot patrol'.

In areas such as Chapel Street it was introduced after complaints by firms and residents in the area who were unable to find parking.

The council said it hoped any change in the law would look at the benefits of CCTV in 'hard to enforce areas'.

Money could be better spent

SIR – So the busway has opened. I totally disagree that it is money well spent. The only ones who will benefit from the long and winding road are the younger generation who reside in the vicinity of the various routes and busway covers.

I wonder whether the local dignitaries will be using the busway on a regular basis, as I cannot help thinking they will continue to travel in their BMWs and Porsches.

As far as pensioners and other concessionary customers are concerned, the officials have us by the short and curlies as bus passes are not permitted. But even then the busway would be no use to us. I am sure that is also the view of many living in Leagrave, Barton Hills, Bramingham Wood, Hockwell Ring, Marsh Farm and Sundown Park to name but a few.

Anyone in these areas without transport who wishes to travel to Dunstable will have to continue to rely on the number 24 bus.

I am sure I am not alone in thinking that the vast majority of pensioners in particular will be extremely reluctant to pay to use the new route. But I suppose there's method in the busway officials' madness. If concessionary passes were accepted many paying passengers may suffer as a consequence, what with us old fogies hogging all the seats!

In the fullness of time I might take an excursion on the busway, even if it means paying for the privilege. Quite apart from anything else I'd like to take a ride on part of what was once an old railway line. Having

Mixed views of new Busway

SIR – I decided to make use of the new Busway, in combination with the train service between Leagrave and Luton, in order to see an evening show at the Grove Theatre, Dunstable.

The train was on time and it was good to be able to approach the bus stops at last and make use of this £91M 'investment'.

The journey was excellent and reached Dunstable in the fastest time I have ever experienced, including the 38 years of private car driving locally.

Negative impressions were as follows. The bus stop shelters are not 'no smoking', so smokers will be huddling together in inclement weather, as the non-smokers are left outside – contrary to current legislation;

Not all timetable displays had timetables, and those that did had the timetable displayed on the inside of the shelter only and above the seating bar. As people want to sit down, this makes reading them very difficult.

The service caught finished at 19.00, according to the driver – no use for a return journey from a theatrical night out.

The exit from the stop by the Central Beds College/White Lion Retail Park (the metal frame used by the cyclists) is only suitable for persons of 5' in height and 30" chest; everyone else has to climb over the two-foot high fencing.

At 22.10, I arrived at the bus stop next to the Winston Churchill pub, as advertised in felt pen at the ASDA, to await a service. Not one bus went towards Luton in 30 minutes! It was Shank's pony for me!

James Henry Limbury

Members of the public accuse teachers of being greedy and only striking because of pay and pensions.

I would agree somewhat that these are still issues, as is performance related pay (which in reality equates to being set unrealistic targets, that are impossible to reach and therefore not progressing up the pay scale). I can assure you that at the moment these concerns are very much periphery.

Teachers are very passionate about our profession, we work incredibly hard, and the vast majority of us work very long hours, including coming in unpaid over holidays and weekends to ensure that students have the best possible opportunity to succeed. Yet since the election of the coalition we have seen Michael Gove systematically destroy the education system in the UK. Gove's reforms have come too fast and have been too heavy handed. They are driven by political ideology, and Mr Gove's own twisted ideas about a good education system.

Very few if any of the changes implemented so far have led to any improvement in education, although they have contributed significantly to destroying teacher morale.

This is the reason we are striking. So that your children will be afforded the best education that we can provide. We do not take this action lightly, and are acutely aware of the inconvenience that we are causing.

If you care about your child's education, then you must support this action, and any further action. We are taking this action for your children, not for increased pay.

Name and address supplied

Teachers' strike is for children

SIR – I would like to share my opinion about the teachers strike. But due to policies at my school in Luton I must do it anonymously.

I feel that the teachers strike has been poorly presented both by the teaching unions and the media. I feel that public perception of the strikes is also very low.

sampled my little Magical Mystery Tour, I cannot help thinking my journey would resemble a pot noodle – something I would only want to try once.

As for the £91million cost, some of it could have been spent on projects which involve the whole community – like bringing back bobbies on the beat and saving libraries.

WHEN the land-owning classes, a right-wing government and the police act in unison, I begin to smell a rat. Or in this case, lots of dead badgers. In Gloucestershire and Somerset badgers are being slaughtered to stop them passing bovine TB on to cattle.

Which, on the face of it, seems fair enough. But this cull is not that simple. To begin with, it does not seem necessary. Very few badgers have bovine TB and even fewer cattle – about one in two hundred in fact. Yet the government, egged on by the National Farmers Union, (NFU), plan to cull more than 130,000 badgers over the next 10 years.

And farmers are allegedly allowing perfectly healthy cattle to be slaughtered, because they get huge compensation for so doing. And killing badgers is quite a profitable game as well.

Not only are there plenty of badgers to shoot, they have a habit of eating birds eggs, so there will be more of them to shoot as well, and foxes will no doubt increase in numbers with fewer badgers around.

So if you like shooting real animals, rather than clay pigeons, it looks like a win-win. Vaccination would be cheaper and more effective but obviously much less fun. And, of course, not all badgers will be killed, at least let's hope not, so the plan is not going to work anyway. So the science just doesn't add up. And the actions of the police are also highly questionable, as they seem to be acting like a private army for the NFU rather than a neutral, even-handed bunch of public servants.

I guess it was always thus. While many, if not most, police officers are decent people, when push comes to shove, and I have seen this quite literally, if ordinary citizens clash with the powerful vested interests of this country there is only one side that they take. Protesters against the culling of badgers have been warned by cops that their names could be passed on to the NFU and the police have also been handing out NFU leaflets. Hardly a neutral stance, which will no doubt be replicated as the slaughter is rolled out across the country. I am not yet convinced of the conspiracy theorists and their belief that a 'feudal minority' backed by the government and the police, is retaking the countryside but, as I said at the beginning, I smell a rat as these groups are hardly progressive and do not appear to have a very coherent argument. No doubt as this cull spreads across the country the divisions and protests will grow. I just hope the reasoning becomes clearer.

LAST week I suggested some names who might be sent on a one-way trip to Mars in 2021. And also asked if there were any names you would like on the list. There were, and top of the list was me.

Apparently I am a left-wing dinosaur who does not fit in today's world, so I should be off to Mars where I can build a commune. The way this world is heading, in the hands of all these new, post-modern neo-cons, I might just take them up on it.

Providing of course we have wi-fi and I can send my views by email. I would hate to deprive my detractors of the thoughts of Martian Lowe.

Police hunt for ex-EDL member

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A FORMER English Defence League member, on the run after being convicted of an attempted robbery, could be hiding out in the town.

Guramit Singh Kalirai, 31, of Ullswater Crescent, Bramcote, was sentenced in his absence at Nottingham Crown Court on Tuesday September 24 in relation to an attempted robbery in Hucknall.

He was found guilty of the offence at Simply Hydro, in Wigwam Lane, which took place on May 2 this year.

He was sentenced to six and a half years in prison.

WANTED: Guramit Singh Kalirai

The court heard that Kalirai, along with two accomplices, entered the property at about 12.30pm.

They then targeted a shop assistant and demanded money.

They pinned him to the ground and bound him while making threats to slash his throat.

An arrest warrant has been issued for Kalirai after he failed to appear at an earlier hearing on September 17.

It is thought he could be in the Luton area but Nottinghamshire Police detectives are keen for anyone who sees him to get in touch.

If you have any information as to Kalirai's whereabouts you can call Nottinghamshire Police or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Global award for

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

WHAT does it take to be named as the 'International Officer of the Year'? Our reporter CARL MUNGAZI caught up with Inspector Annita Clarke from Bedfordshire Police fresh from receiving the award at the International Association of Women Police (IAWP) ceremony in South Africa.

Q: International Police Officer of the Year – how does that feel?

A: I'm very proud of winning the award. I've been a police officer for 24 years and throughout that time what I've wanted to do is – and it sounds a cliché – put baddies away and give a voice to the vulnerable.

And throughout my time that's been the golden thread. So this award feels like a vindication, someone recognising the fact that I've really worked – which I have – and I just feel really proud.

Q: Why do you think you got the award?

There are 60 countries, countless nominees and the four categories for this award were leadership, professionalism, communities and development. I have worked really hard in all of those areas and clearly provided evidence that I had the attributes they wanted for that award.

PRESENTATION: Inspector Annita Clarke receives her IAWP award at a special ceremony which took place in South Africa last week

So I think it was a case of having my heart in the job – which I have – I am completely passionate about the police because I think we're getting it right.

I agree with our regime and our golden thread is providing a quality service to the public and that's all I've wanted to do and I think they saw that in my application.

Q: So what next?

A: There are several things I want to achieve. I do want to achieve more promotion and I want to work very hard towards that promotion.

I don't think anything should be given to anybody and I think people should receive it on merit, as a result I know I have to work towards it and that's fine.

This [award] will not open up a door towards promotion, that doesn't happen, you have to work to achieve it so I do want to aspire to be a

Delays to launch of 'pop up' store

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutoonsunday.co.uk

THE opening of a 'pop up' shop that was set to house new start-up retailers in the county has been delayed until the end of the month.

An empty store in Ashton Square, Dunstable, was supposed to have opened up on Wednesday for entrepreneurs looking to sell their products.

However, Dunstable council, the authority responsible for the day-to-day running of the shop, said the launch had been pushed back because some of the traders were unable to trade this fortnight.

However, once open, the store will be able to house four start-ups, co-working and co-funding the space at a time, and the retailers will range from fashion to home wares, to unique handmade gifts and chocolates.

One of its confirmed businesses will be Not Before Tea, a boutique online confectionary start-up by nine-year-old Henry Patterson from Lidlington.

The young entrepreneur offers a range of themed sweetie jars for kids, such as Mud & Worms, Mallow

Henry Patterson's Not Before Tea online confectionary will be one of the businesses trading in the store once it has finally opened

Meadows and Aliens in Space, which can be used as gifts and have glass pens included so they can be decorated once empty.

He will be joined by online jewellery and accessories brand Dream Jewelz, run by part-time restaurant manager Julie Koch from her home in the Priory area of Dunstable.

Julie used to run the local nightclub Cinderella Rockafella before it changed hands. She runs her online business when she gets home at night and at the weekend – but said she always dreamed of growing her business enough to take on her own shop.

The council said it was still looking for more businesses interested in setting up in the store.

THE county's police force is to recruit 80 police constables after more people left during spending cuts than expected.

Eighty new police officers will arrive over the course of the next 12 months, including existing officers transferring in from other forces and brand new officers who will be trained in Bedfordshire.

Since 2010 the force has been cut back from 1,248 officers to 1,092, and a further 32 cops will leave by the end of the financial year, some of which will be down to its compulsory retirement policy.

The new recruitment drive would put numbers up to around 1,140. But budget pressures would mean that within two years it would be back at around 1,050.

Olly Martins, said: "Most have left from the local policing side of things and that is because when you recruit specialist officers they come out of local policing."

"The savings we have made to be able to recruit is through collaboration of joint servic-

HIRING: Commissioner Martin said the recruitment drive was about keeping the force 'at the point we should be at' es with other forces.

"Even though we are recruiting 80 officers, by the end of 2015 we will still have to lose 200."

"Hiring the 80 is about keeping us at the point we should be at, not increasing the size of the force."

Spending cuts are also set to affect the force's stations.

A consultation asking what members of the public think about closing police stations has come to an end.

Police and Crime Commissioner Olly Martins put forward the proposal to close some of the county's 10 sites in August to cut costs.

It is thought that around 1,200 people replied to the survey, the results of which are now being considered.

Mr Martins added: "A look at the data earlier on in the consultation showed that people were quite supportive of the idea to save on our estates."

Fire chief retires after 30 years of service

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

BEDFORDSHIRE'S assistant chief fire officer Julian Sears has just retired after 30 years with the fire and rescue service.

Mr Sears, who was born in Bedfordshire, joined the fire service in September 1983 as a probationary firefighter.

He retired after bidding farewell to former colleagues at a special presentation.

During his career Mr Sears received the Queen's Fire Service Medal for exceptional contribution to community safety partnership work.

He said: "I am extremely appreciative of the fact that I have always worked with brilliant teams throughout my career - from the watch I was with on my first posting in Luton, to the principal officers team I have worked with in more recent years.

"The people of Bedfordshire are very fortunate to have such an excellent fire and rescue service.

"Although we are a small fire and rescue service we really punch above our weight in terms of our performance, which is consistently reviewed as being of the highest standard; and in terms of the ground-breaking initiatives which we successfully implement - such as the new 24-hour shift system."

YEARS OF SERVICE: Mr Sears (left) was given a mounted and engraved firefighter's axe to mark his years as a fire officer

Bedfordshire's chief fire officer, Paul Fuller, (pictured above right), said: "Julian has made an outstanding contribution to Bedfordshire Fire and Rescue Service throughout his 30-year career.

"He has also made a very significant and long-lasting contribution to community safety - something which has helped to make Bedfordshire a safer place.

"Julian has combined his intellect, hard work, vision and great interpersonal skills to help provide Bedfordshire with an excellent fire and rescue service. He will be sadly missed, and we wish him the very best in his well deserved retirement."

Splash! makes a return to Inspire

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

CELEBRITY diving show Splash! is to return to the town for a second series, the council has announced.

Luton Council said it had agreed with production company TwoFour for the second series of the show to be filmed at the Inspire Sports Village, in Stopsley, during January and February next year.

Earlier this year millions of viewers up and down the country tuned in every weekend during the first edition of Splash! to watch celebrities performing difficult and challenging dives.

It was eventually won by former British Skier Eddie "The Eagle" Edwards.

Pam Garraway, corporate director of Housing and Community Living, said: "The first series of Splash! which went out live to millions of households each Saturday night was a great success and made a positive impact on how Luton is perceived nationally, as well as highlighting the fantastic facilities we have to offer at Inspire.

"Inspire is a venue that

DIVE IN: Olympic bronze medal and European Championship winner Tom Daley will be returning for the second series of the show everyone can use to get active and become healthier and the TV show helped us to attract new users with hundreds of people signing up to the Learn to Dive courses and a substantial waiting list for both swimming and diving lessons.

"We have also seen an increase in membership numbers and requests to hire the centre for regional and national events."

Mrs Garraway also said the council had 'learnt' some lessons from the parking problems brought on by the first series. She said part of the plans to tackle this will include the hiring of a professional parking company.

OPEN DAY

For YEAR 7 Admissions 2014
Friday 18th October 2013

We are very excited about the opportunity of becoming a secondary school from September 2014 and being able to offer places to children in Year 7. There will now be a chance for students to make an earlier start at the school in which they will sit their GCSE and A level examinations. At Manshead School we work together with students and the home to be 'in search of personal excellence'. We provide an environment in which students will develop and gain the skills and qualifications they will need to meet the challenges of a quickly changing world.

Manshead has an excellent reputation for the personalised approach that we bring to education and in how we provide individual support for every student.

Our personalised curriculum allows all students to achieve well in their examinations. In 2012 83% of students gained 5 GCSE passes at C or above and our superb A level results make us the top school in the area. Every year our students progress to top universities to continue their studies.

We hope that prospective parents will be able to attend our open evening and open day to see the school in action and the excellent facilities available to students.

Open Evening will be held on Thursday 10th October from 6.30 - 9pm. This is an opportunity for prospective students and their parents to take a guided tour of the school, meet a range of subject staff and current students, talk to Governors and hear a presentation from the Headteacher and students. Presentations will be held at 6.30, 7.15 and 8pm giving plenty of time to tour the school. There is no need to book for open evening.

Open Day will be held on Friday 18th October at 9am with tours at 9:10 and 11:30 and is a chance to look around school whilst it is in action. There will be a brief talk before students take small groups of prospective parents and their children around the site. There will be a chance to speak to the Headteacher and other members of the Leadership Team at the end of the tour.

'Hooroo possums!' Dame Edna bids farewell to the world on her last tour

SPECTACULAR

BARRY HUMPHRIES' FAREWELL TOUR: EAT, PRAY, LAUGH!

Milton Keynes Theatre
October 23 - 26

WHEN you have a rare opportunity to interview a global megastar, you'd be daft not to do your homework in advance.

But it turns out that, when the legendary giant in question is DAME EDNA EVERAGE, who launches her farewell world tour in Milton Keynes, you can pretty much just tear up your list of planned questions, sit back and let her entertain you.

Apart from a few brief interjections, JUDY RILEY did just that.

Did you dream of stardom as a young, artistically frustrated housewife in Moonee Ponds?

"It seemed impossible, beyond my grasp. I stumbled into it. I met this young fellow, Barry Humphries, (a man who is currently sought by Interpol but that's another story). He was doing what used to be called a 'revue' and he was trying to do a drag character.

"It was unkind, satirical stuff about Melbourne housewives. Anyway, he came to the Church Hall in Moonee Ponds and saw me there playing Mary Magdalene, washing the feet of Jesus with my hair, and he thought I had some gift so he engaged me to coach him in his performance. Between you and me, Judy darling, he's not our type. Anyway, to cut to the chase, I ended up going on stage to do my own little act. I got a taste for applause and started doing one-woman shows all over London. I became a star overnight, I toured to the United States and won a Tony Award on Broadway."

Barry Humphries became your manager way back, how does he feel about this being your final stage tour?

(Quietly) "He doesn't know about that."

In a long and glittering career on stage, have there been any embarrassing or traumatising moments for you?

"Well, I have had to work under difficult circumstances at times, such as after the death of Norm, my husband, though that did give me the freedom to work on my career. But I have also had to work while managing a dysfunctional family.

"My daughter, Valmai, the shoplifter, is known for having the gift of the grab. My younger son, Bruce, has suffered from being the child of very celebrated parents. Margaret Thatcher used to say 'your younger boy, Bruce, is a bit like my son Mark.'

"Recently Bruce has been involved in the restaurant business. Between you and me, Judy, it's hard to have a son who comes home at night and says 'let's eat Afghan.'

"Kenny, my elder son, is my pride and joy. He has designed all my gowns for this show and they are beautiful, beautiful. They are made by blind 10 year-old orphans in Cambodia – they weren't blind before they started making them of course..."

You are looking terrific these days; your legs are wonderfully shapely still and you have wowed many famous people with your looks over the years.

"Yes, darling, I'm still proud of my legs though I have gone off a little above the waist.

"The French call my looks 'jolie laide', it means unconventionally attractive. Men have always found me attractive.

"The lovely late Larry Hagman adored me, and Sir Terry Wogan too. I was appearing in front of 45,000 people with Terry at The Last Night of the Proms in Hyde Park a couple of weeks ago. Before I went on they said 'please don't mention his hair'. So when I got on stage I said: 'Terry I've been told not to mention your hair.' Well, sweetheart, women are more free and easy in that way, aren't they?

"I said 'you've got white tufts on either side of your head. You look like a badger, darling. Don't go down to Gloucestershire will you; you might be culled.'"

Are there any dramatic parts you would like to play?

"I would like to play some of the great female roles, like Lady Macbeth or Hedda Gabler. I have actually written a version of Hedda Gabler; it's called Edna Garbler."

Have you ever been to Milton Keynes before?

"No, I haven't. But I hear the suicide rate is high. Have you ever committed suicide, darling? I'm so looking forward to coming there."

What kind of evening's entertainment can we expect from Eat, Pray, Laugh!

"It's the best show I've ever done. It was a huge hit in Australia. Sir Les Patterson, who I don't like much, is now a celebrity chef and he is in it. There's a séance, at which we meet Sandy Stone and another character I can't divulge anything about.

"Then in the second half, I take over with my gorgeous girl and boy dancers, the Everetts and the Testednarones and I introduce my new gorgeous ToyBoy – who is considerably younger than me."

Will this farewell tour be the first in a well-publicised series?

"Sadly Judy darling, no. This is my swansong. I want to leave you all at the height of my powers.

"You may see me on the television from time to time but this is my last physical contact with my audience and I have LOTS of fun!"

And, possums, it's fair dinkum to say that her audiences will have heaps of fun too.

Two for the price of one on offer this week at the theatre

THEATRE

Milton Keynes Theatre
October 7-12

ENJOY two one-act plays for the price of one this week with the revival of a double bill of bitter-sweet comedies by award-winning playwright, Sir Peter Shaffer.

Starring ex-Corrie star Rupert Hill (remember scrummy Jamie Baldwin?), critically acclaimed classical actor Jasper Britton, Steven Blakeley (best known as PC Geoff Younger in Heartbeat) and rising star and Irish beauty Siobhan O'Kelly, the plays were first performed 50 years ago.

"But," says Steven Blakeley, "these plays have stood the test of time and endured because human nature has changed very little."

Director Alastair Whately adds: "The plays don't preach and they certainly don't get up on any moral high ground, but they do pose questions."

In The Private Ear, set in a musky London bedsit, reclusive Bob calls in a favour from Ted, his slick, confident friend, to help him treat his beautiful but shy date to a slap up meal.

The other part, In The Public Eye, features uptight Charles who is confronted by Julian, an eccentric private detective hired by Charles to investigate his young wife, whom he suspects of infidelity.

Read a full interview with the show's cast by Vicky Edwards at luton-dunstable.co.uk.

Tickets can be purchased by visiting Milton Keynes Theatre at www.atgtickets.com/miltonkeynes or by calling the box office on 0844 8717652.

Hanks stars in pirate hijack

FILM PREVIEWS

Various Cinemas
Coming Soon

THIS week our resident film expert Gavin Miller previews movies that are going to be coming out in the next couple of weeks.

CAPTAIN PHILLIPS (Release date October 18, running time 134 mins): Positive feedback is already putting this based-on-a-true-story movie into the Oscar mix – which is never a surprise with two-time Academy Award-winner Tom Hanks in the picture.

He stars as US ship captain Richard Phillips, commanding officer of a vessel which is hijacked by a group of Somali pirates in 2009 – the first American cargo ship to have been taken in two hundred years.

Oscar-nominated United 93 and The Bourne Ultimatum director Paul Greengrass particularly focuses on Phillips' relationship with his African counterpart Muse (Barkhad Abdi) as they find themselves paying the toll for economic forces out of their control.

THE FIFTH ESTATE (Release date October 11, running time 128 mins): Benedict Cumberbatch takes on the now infamous role of whistleblower Julian Assange, who came to prominence after turning a small Internet venture into one of the world's most talked-about organisations – after exposing government secrets of alleged corruption and deception.

Daniel Bruhl (Rush) co-stars in this drama about the WikiLeaks founder.

ESCAPE PLAN (Release date October 18, running time 116 mins): Stallone and Schwarzenegger finally team-up for their first major movie together (The Expendables doesn't really count) in this actioner which co-stars 50 Cent.

Sly stars as a structural security expert who has to break out of an ultra-secret high-tech facility after getting wrongly imprisoned – and enlists the help of Arnie's fellow inmate to devise a daring escape.

A BUG'S LIFE

You could argue that in this MK3 design, we finally have the proper Beetle tribute model we should have had in the first place.

This car borrows its heritage, its silhouette and its retro uniqueness from the post-war original, but fuses it with the sort of fuel economy, safety and creature comforts that the modern buyer demands - without the retro excesses and gender-specific touches of the second generation car.

This time round, the sportier look is matched by a sportier feel from an efficient range of engines but even so, this is a design you'll still either love or hate.

Though a 200PS 2.0-litre petrol turbo engine has been developed for this car, along with both 1.6 and 2.0-litre diesels respectively developing either 105 or 140PS, most UK sales will be of the 1.2 and 1.4-litre petrol engines that this car was launched with.

SUBSTITUTE Alex Wall's 25-yard thunderbolt was the final act of a pulsating Kenilworth Road blockbuster as the Hatters fought from two goals down to record a famous 4-3 win yesterday.

A breathless first half provided six of the best with Luke Guttridge's fifth of the season sandwiched between a 23-minute Halifax blitz as the visitors raced into a 3-1 lead.

Astoundingly, parity had been restored by the 39th minute as Town's frontline pairing of Paul Benson and Andre Gray notched a goal apiece to wipe the Shaymen's smiles off their faces.

With the game drifting towards a flat ending,

Wall rifled home his first goal of a frustrating season to complete the comeback and rubber-stamp his name in Town folklore.

This match continued what has been a roller-coaster ride for FC Halifax Town since rising like a phoenix from the ashes after AFC Halifax Town fell into administration in 2008.

Three promotions in five seasons have led the Shaymen to the top tier of non-league football with this Hatters clash perhaps representing their sternest test in a short existence.

However, Halifax were not fazed by this enormous challenge as they struck first blood in just the fifth minute.

Top scorer Lee Gregory's strong run and shot forced a sprawling save from Mark Tyler but with Town unable to clear their lines accordingly, Paul Marshall nonchalantly smashed in the rebound.

The sizeable away turnout chants of "Who are ya?" rang out as Town's faithful roared encouragement for their wounded troops.

But for a further moment of panic as Halifax's Adam Smith found a myriad of space down the Luton left but failed to deliver a purposeful cross, the Hatters found their stride and soon cancelled out the deficit.

Paul Benson weaved a delicate pass to unorthodox left-winger Luke Guttridge and his deflected shot evaded keeper Matt Glennon and agonisingly found its way into the net.

If Hatters' fans thought it would be plain sailing from there though, they were very much mistaken as a familiar face popped up to head the Shaymen back in front.

Marshall turned from scorer to provider as his viciously-whipped free kick found former Town centre-back Simon Ainge who rose highest to send Neil Aspin's men into hysteria.

Luton's five-goal home masterpiece with Lincoln City two weeks ago certainly delivered thoroughly for excitement but this bout was

Scrum issues costly as Luton are beaten

RUGBY UNION*BY TIM BARTLETTsport@lsmmedia.co.uk

LUTON RFC were beaten 28-25 at home to Brentwood yesterday, on an afternoon where they failed to dominate their London 1 North opponents, particularly in the scrum.

"We consistently lost our set pieces," said backs-coach Nick Rhodes.

"We probably had less than 10 per cent of the ball, but we still only lost by three points, and could have won it at the death, but they were worthy winners."

Tries from Dave Brennan, Michael Weston and Dan

Blinkhorn, with Rik Hobbs kicking two conversions and two penalties, earned Luton bonus points.

"In all my years in rugby, this is by far the worst day I've had," said Rhodes. "It was pitiful."

DUNSTABLIANS failed to maintain the kind of form that has given them a 100 per cent record in the Midlands 2 East South this season, losing 38-7 in the Leighton Buzzard derby game.

Dees scored a late consolation try by way of Gav Denning, with Danny Mills kicking the conversion, but they had precious little else to show for their afternoon's work.

"Leighton dominated up front," said Dees' James Marchant. "We missed tackles, and lacked structure, it was a bad day at the office for us."

STOCKWOOD PARK ran out 58-0 winners away at Deepings, in a complete ten-try team performance.

"We probably should have scored a few more," said Stockwood's Jason Carr.

"But I suppose you shouldn't really complain when you win by so much and keep a clean sheet, we actually put together a full 80 minutes of rugby today, where previously we may have started, or finished well. Today we didn't stop."

Stockwood lead 24-0 at the interval, thanks to tries from Tom Childs, Eric Butler, Alex Lovell and Tom Redfearn, with Carr kicking two conversions.

After the break, Dave Keating ran in four tries, with James Peddar and James Hankey weighing in one apiece, to complete the ten-try mauling.

Still instantly knew of signing Viana's class

BY LUKE PETERSON

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

JOHN Still says he immediately knew that new signing David Viana has a touch of class.

The former Portugal youth international officially signed for the Hatters earlier this week following a successful trial.

Still admits he didn't know who Viana was before a scout recommended the former Atletico Madrid midfielder, but says he could see the 21-year-old's pedigree as soon as he witnessed him play.

"No [I didn't know him] but I looked at where he'd been and what he'd done," said the boss. "He came over and, to be fair, you could see it straight away that he could play."

"This is a boy that wanted [to come to England]. We didn't chase him to come. He was happy to come over himself, at no cost, to show what he could do so he's very confident."

"We spent three or four weeks assessing him and within that time we felt that he would be okay to compete at this level."

Viana has also had stints at Strasbourg and, most recently, MLS side Real Salt Lake, but couldn't establish himself in either first team.

Despite that, Still is adamant that he will show his true talents in the English game, having already scored twice in three development games.

"He wants to make a career in England," said Still. "At his age, he comes into that category where his career can be anything."

"[He is] technically very good; good touch, good movement, good with the ball. [He is] very clever with the ball, moves it early, moves it well, sees a pass, sees a shot."

"He can play wide but he can play off the main striker. As we develop him, I think he can play central midfield, certainly in a three and maybe in a two."

"He's done very, very well in what we've done so far but [he needs to] settle down a little bit and gradually, I hope, all the skills will come out."

"When we see the skills, we can then start working a bit more with him to improve him but I just want him to relax at the moment and show us what he's got in his locker."

However, it may be too early for current Luton first-teamers to fear for their place.

"I wouldn't want him to be put in too early and be chasing the game rather than running the game," said Still.

proving a bigger hit as Halifax extended their lead.

Dan Gardner's 23rd-minute tremendous gallop from the halfway line was unopposed by any Hatter and he calmly stroked past the hapless Tyler from 20 yards.

Blink and you've missed something. The crossbar saved Tyler extra embarrassment as Gregory's shot bounced clear. Then came the swift turnaround.

Benson touched home from a Ronnie Henry cross in the 33rd minute to take the goals tally to five and six minutes later Gray beat his man and drove home from 12 yards.

All involved deserved their half-time orange and breather.

From the storm came the relative calm as the second period failed to live up to the outrageous first 45 minutes but it was Town who pressed for the next and perhaps decisive goal. Captain Henry presumably misplaced his compass as he sauntered forward under no duress but his powerless left-foot shot befitted that of a full-back as it dragged harmlessly wide.

The visitors had not given up hope on regaining the lead though.

A last-ditch lunge from Alex Lacey denied Gregory a shot as he hared in on goal while a Kevin Holsgrove deflected shot almost compounded Tyler's miserable day.

Halifax were ending the match as intently as they had begun this enthralling encounter.

With less than ten minutes remaining you could have heard a pin drop as both sets of fans looked resigned to witnessing a goalless second half.

However substitute Wall was on hand to finish the match with a peach.

Just as Gardner had raced forward for his goal, Wall was invited to take a pot-shot and his 25-yard strike blasted past Glennon into the corner of the net. Kenilworth Road came unglued.

The final whistle heralded wild celebrations and manager John Still even allowed the fan that abused Ronnie Henry during the Lincoln game to enter the post-match team huddle. A bizarre ending to a bizarre afternoon.

Luton - Tyler; Henry (capt), McNulty, Lacey, Griffiths; Parry, Guttridge, Smith, Lawless (Robinson, 90); Gray, Benson (Wall, 74). Subs not used - Howells, Justham, Whalley.

Town storm through in the Trophy but Rovers bow out

LOCAL FOOTBALL

BY MATT DESAI

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

DUNSTABLE TOWN stormed into the first round of the FA Trophy after a 4-1 demolition of Erith & Belvedere in the preliminary round yesterday.

The hosts scored twice in both halves, displaying their control of the game from start to finish, before a last-minute consolation goal for The Deres.

Lee Roache got the scoring going after twenty minutes, with midfielder Danny Murphy doubling Town's lead just past the half-hour mark. Roache was on hand to pick up his second and Dunstable's third mid-way through the second period, before Adam Watkins rounded off an excellent afternoon at Creasey Park with a goal in the final stages of the game. Substitute Marcus Cassius grabbed a stoppage time consolation for the Kent outfit, but it was never enough to prevent The Blues progressing to the next stage of the competition.

BARTON ROVERS, however, won't be joining them there, after suffering a 3-0 defeat at the hands of Peacehaven & Telscombe.

The visitors scored three times in the first half to ensure victory, but in truth the win could have been by a much greater margin.

The Magpies took the lead after just nine minutes, when Lloyd Cotton's deflected drive from the edge of the box beat 'keeper Grant Beckwith.

Moments later Rovers' task became even more difficult as Peacehaven doubled their lead thanks to midfielder Josh Jones.

The home side slowly began to grow into the game and ten minutes before the break Bobby Dance's effort brought the visitors' 'keeper into the action, albeit a straightforward save.

Peacehaven responded immediately, however, and all but sealed the tie on thirty-eight minutes, when Cotton notched his second with a clever lob. The second-half saw similar one-way traffic from the Sussex club, but they were unable to let their dominance further affect the scoreline, as they booked their place in the FA Trophy first round.

AFC DUNSTABLE were victors in a nine-goal thriller away to Pitstone & Ivinghoe in the Spartan South Midlands Football League Challenge Trophy.

The ODs found themselves 2-0 behind after only five minutes, but goals from BJ Christie and Richard Harker saw the deficit reduced, and the visitors went in at half-time 4-3 down after a fascinating half of football.

The second forty-five was to be no repeat in terms of goals scored, but two goals without reply from Alex Butler's men mean they head into the second round after a 5-4 triumph.

'A crazy afternoon and one we will not forget'

MEMORABLE WIN: The Hatters celebrate
Picture: Gareth Owen

FOOTBALL

BY TOM SHARP
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

IN THE aftermath of the Hatters' 3-2 home win over Lincoln City two weeks ago, it could be argued that relations between team and fans were on unsteady ground.

An altercation between club captain Ronnie Henry and a fan during that eventual victory sparked uncertainty but yesterday's amazing 4-3 comeback win over FC Halifax Town certainly dispelled any suggestions of a lack of solidarity at Kenilworth Road.

At the final whistle of this win, boss John Still allowed that same fan who had abused Henry to enter the team huddle and soak up the applause from the crowd.

Smiles all round except for the Halifax faithful who were left to head back to Yorkshire empty-handed.

With Still seemingly resting in a dark room after witnessing the topsy-turvy affair, first-team coach Hakan Hayretin praised the Hatters' fighting spirit but believed the main benefactor was support of the 6300-strong home crowd.

"When the boys were down 3-1 there was no sign of negativity at all," said Hayretin.

"They drove us on and were unbelievable as they have been for all of the season. They were our twelfth man for sure.

"We have got to have that same desire, same attitude and same professionalism to keep doing the right things, to keep driving on but I do not think we can go wrong with that support behind us.

"It was just a crazy afternoon to savour and one none of us will forget in a hurry."

The game's match-winner Alex Wall has had a largely exasperating start to this Skrill Premier season due to injury and suspension.

However, he showed a glimpse of his full potential with the rocket to end Halifax's hopes of snatching a deserved point or perhaps more and Hayretin was quick to praise the striker's commitment to the cause.

"The boy has had a lot of bad luck this season as we all know," said the coach.

"He has had a virus, he has been injured, suspended and he has come back and played in the development and reserve team games and shown great desire.

"To score that kind of goal to end a game like that was phenomenal and I am happy for him because he has had such a hard time.

"His first of the season but hopefully he can crack a few more of those before the season is done."

• Luton have moved up to fifth in the Skrill Premier table, the last of the play-off places, ahead of Tuesday's trip to Aldershot Town.
